This image shows a vertical rectangular sheet of white paper designed for handwriting practice. It features ten identical horizontal rows stacked vertically. Each row is defined by three horizontal lines: a solid black line at the top, a dashed black line in the middle, and another solid black line at the bottom. The margins are consistent throughout the page.

This is a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

This image shows a full page of primary-ruled paper. It features ten sets of horizontal lines designed for handwriting practice. Each set consists of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The lines are evenly spaced vertically across the entire page, providing a guide for letter height and placement. The paper is otherwise blank, with no margins or additional markings.
